Belmont, May 10.—Another wife is now in Belmont. She says that three years ago she was visiting a miller's store in Belmont, and that the man who was there was a man who was visiting for used books. He gained her confidence, and they were married. Being happy together for a year, a year and a half, he left her, and went to San Francisco. She deposited her money—the sum is not stated—in a San Francisco bank.

Belmont, May 10.—A woman who is now traced to San Francisco, was purchased to day by Mr. W. Y. Seelye, of San Francisco, for a home which was sold for large sum, as it lies.

The chairman of the county commissioners and the auditor are here again, and the new county auditor has come, and will have been secured to Mr. Knott, of Walla Walla.

PROTECTION AND THE SOUTH

General James A. Walker, an O. P. T. Democrat of Virginia, Expresses Himself Freely.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., April 29.—The Dauphin profits from a column and some of an interview, as Wytheville, Va., with General James A. Walker, a lieutenant governor under Holliday and one of Stonewall Jackson's generals. He has been leader in democratic politics, but of late there have been some changes in his views, and he is now in the Democratic party.

The general outlined his position by frank answers to many leading questions, among which were the following:

"Under the object of the protective convention is called Birmingham, with which your name is connected."

"Under the object to be up to us to the protective element of the South, and in view of the fact that we are represented in Congress from protection districts, irrespective of their present or future afflictions?"

RECOLLECTIONS FOR CONGRESS

"What do you propose to accomplish in a political campaign?"

"We propose to send many staunch protectionists to Congress, from Southern districts who will not surrender their convictions on that question to party expediency or census distribution, but who will be willing to make some sacrifice in the matter of their votes. We hope by this means to make protection the fixed policy of the government, year after year, and thereby relieve many difficulties from the anxiety and doubt occasioned by the constantly varying nature of the parties and the uncertainty of their policies."

The rapid growth of the manufacturing enterprises in the South, the increasing number of the manufacturing districts to seek protection, and the men who are building up the New South, will look to their interest, and will not be satisfied with the status quo, and the South is willing to divide on the tariff question."

AN EFFECTIVE

William Walker was baptized last night by immersion in a bath basin carried into the jail. The scene was affecting. John Matthews made a long prayer which could be masterfully heard in the street fronting the jail. The two Walker men were silent, their eyes closed to sleep, and did not wake until after 4 o'clock. They were up early and ate their breakfast at the usual hour. The jail yard was full of guards armed with rifles, shotguns, and revolvers.

Divisions were made in the jail at 7:30 o'clock. Matthews and William Walker took part. At 8:30 the sheriff entered the jail and read the death warrant to the doomed men, and soon after they were led to the scaffold.

For the next two weeks powerful plans have been made to the governor for a commutation of the sentence of the three men but Wednesday last, after reviewing the case at length, the governor declined to interfere, and the condemned men were notified that they must die.

AN AXE SIGHT.

Just before leaving his cell John Matthews shouted in a loud voice. The sheriff helped Matthews up the steps. Young Walker followed with a firm step, the father and son chose a chair as far as ever. At the trap religious services were held. The noose was adjusted at 9:40. John Matthews said he had nothing to say. He was there, but took no part in the service. Matthews called on all who were willing to help his little ones to hold up their hands. Surety everyone in sight held up his hand.

The black cap was adjusted at 9:51 and at 9:53 the true was sprung. John Matthews fell back. The straining of the rope let all fall to the floor. The two Walker men fell loose and lay there struggling and groaning. He asked for three minutes, when he was taken up by the sheriff and deputies out to the scaffold. Dave Walker was drawn up and died in about fifteen minutes. Matthews died about ten minutes and died with his hands on the ground. The scene was horrible in the extreme. Matthews and Dave Walker were cut down at 10:10. The trap was again adjusted and William Walker lifted helpless, groaning, struggling and screaming. This time his descent came to a sudden stop with his feet fully thirty inches from the ground, and he died without a struggle.

BURDEN OF THE CRIME.

The arrest, trial, and conviction of the Bald Knobbers, last summer, received wide attention, and for the first time the history of the Bald Knobber organization was made public. Henry county, Missouri, was the home of many of these masked regulators. It is in the southern section of the state, and the early days of its formation were characterized by the protection of life and property. At a point eight miles east of Ozark, and near the Edenes home, on May 1, Evans was whipped by Bald Knobbers for his misbehavior in church. Old man Edenes, who was a friend of Evans, interceded and received several blows with a whip. Edenes afterwards learned that most of the Bald Knobbers, and one or two regular church members, Chief Walker was an author, a temperance advocate, and a general scamp. The Bald Knobbers, chief among them, were overcome by the regulators, and fled to the south. They then visited the house of William Edenes, but finding him gone, proceeded to the house of James Edenes, William's father. There were two sons, one a son of James Edenes, at the time, the father, mother, son-in-law, daughter, and son-in-law and two grandsons. The Bald Knobbers fired promiscuously into the house, killing young William Edenes and Charles Green, son-in-law, and leaving old man Edenes on the floor for dead.

A peculiар feature of the Bald Knobbers, now dead, is that majority of the most prominent members of that band of regulators were regular church members. Chief Walker was an author, a temperance advocate, and a general scamp. The Bald Knobbers, chief among them, were overcome by the regulators, and fled to the south. They then visited the house of William Edenes, but finding him gone, proceeded to the house of James Edenes, William's father. There were two sons, one a son of James Edenes, at the time, the father, mother, son-in-law, daughter, and son-in-law and two grandsons. The Bald Knobbers fired promiscuously into the house, killing young William Edenes and Charles Green, son-in-law, and leaving old man Edenes on the floor for dead.

CHICAGO KIDS FROM PITTSBURG.

Chicago, May 10.—Staleys' ineffectiveness allowed the home team to win to-day's game. Mr. Paton, who has been visiting in San Francisco for the past month, Mrs. Paton, although born and raised in San Francisco, considers East Portland her climate, and is very glad to be home again.

MOTORS ARRIVED.

Two motors for the Portland & Vancouver Rail-way Company have arrived, and will be put into use at once.

GENERAL HOSPITAL RECORD.

ST. LOUIS, May 10.—General Hospital, which was given its first military appointment by President Monroe, is mentioned in the First report of Infantry, stationed in Louisville, Kentucky. The hospital is doing well, and the Black Redoubt building in Indian and about the Black Redoubt was being pushed rapidly. He greatly feared that under the present conditions it would not last long.

PORTLAND, SATURDAY, MAY 11.

THE FACILITY OF MURDER

"Sandy" Olds yesterday murdered Emil Weber shooting him at sight at one of the principal thoroughfares of the city. The murderer and his victim were both gamblers. Weber was a noted and violent and daredevil fighter. His brutal treatment of his former wife is a record of infamy with our people. At one time Weber had considered his money by a revolution against the police, but of late years he has become so ruffianly and violent that his "game" was closed and kept closed and since that time he had sworn that if he could not keep a game no other gambler should in Portland. Of course this attitude did not win him the affection of others, in fact and there had been an hostility between him and Olds for some time past. Within the last few days the man had had a general understanding to teach enough children to read and write. Such an seemed necessary to give his companion education half of all the time spent might well have been utilized at least during the first five years of the term designated.

There was but little dissenting votes in the City assembly when the compulsory education bill was put on its final passage. It is to the credit of the state that every child in the state between the ages of 7 and 14 years shall attend school at least twelve weeks during each year. This will give a total of one and three quarters years schooling to each child. The parents are not necessarily compelled to teach enough children to read and write. Such an seemed necessary to give his companion education half of all the time spent might well have been utilized at least during the first five years of the term designated.

They have however given it a high value. They believe the world has a new pronounced by the public and the press. Only the best physicians of America's wisdom and alcute.

THE WORK OF MEXICAN MURKERS. TROY, A. F. May 10.—It has been definitely ascertained that the killing of Cole, whose body was found in a stone trough in the rear of the house charged to Apache Indians, was the work of three Mexicans who had a quarrel with Cody the day before. No Indians had left the reservation.
